III. General professional experience:

Since 1986, I have been practicing in the areas of bankruptcy, creditors' rights, Chapter 11 reorganizations and related litigation. I am an adjunct professor of law at St. John's University School of Law (L.L.M. program), an author for The Collier Bankruptcy Practice Guide and a member of the Board of Contributions of Bankruptcy Strategist. I have written and lectured on a variety of bankruptcy topics.

I am a partner in Rosen Slome Marder LLP, a law firm which concentrates its practice in all areas of creditors' rights, bankruptcy law and related commercial litigation.

IV. Experience and familiarity with bankruptcy law:

I have represented debtors, creditors, trustees and committees in all aspects of bankruptcy cases, including chapter 11 cases, chapter 7 cases and out-of-court workouts since 1986. From 1986 through 1990, I practiced bankruptcy law with Michaelson, Susi & Michaelson in Santa Barbara, CA and from 1990 through 1992, I practiced bankruptcy law with Willkie Farr & Gallagher in New York, New York. In 1992, I began my own firm which is now known as Rosen Slome Marder LLP.

V. Mediation training:

On June 27 and 18, 1994, I completed a two-day mediation training program conducted by the Institute of Conflict Management, Inc. and sponsored by United States Bankruptcy Court, S.D.N.Y.

VI. Mediation experience:

Since 1994 I have served as a mediator and participated as an advocate in numerous mediations in cases pending in the U.S. Bankruptcy Courts for the Southern and Eastern Districts of New York and the District of Delaware.
