III. General professional experience:

I have practiced law for more than thirty years. My areas of practice are commercial litigation, corporate compliance and alternate dispute resolution. I serve as a Special Master to the Hon. Karla Moskowitz (and, until her retirement for the Hon. Beatrice Shainswit) of New York Supreme Court's Commercial Division and as an arbitrator for the New York Stock Exchange. I have also served as an Independent Hearing Officer for the New York State Banking Department. For more complete information, please see my profile on my firm's website: www.doarlaw.com.

IV. General pertinent experience:

I have been a mediator for nearly ten years, during which time I mediated approximately 60 cases for: the U.S. District Courts, Southern and Eastern Districts of New York; New York Supreme Court, New York County, Commercial Division; the National Association of Securities Dealers and the New York Stock Exchange. I also mediate for parties who retain me privately and will be happy to provide references on request. I have extensive commercial litigation experience as an advocate and as a neutral.

V. Mediation training:

I have participated in several mediation training programs, described below:

1. S.D.N.Y. Bankruptcy Court and NASD-sponsored course on February 1996, given by Institute for Conflict Management (24 hours);
2. S.D.N.Y. District Court training, December 9-10, 1997 (16 hours); and
3. N.Y. Supreme Court, Commercial Division training by JAMS/Endispute (Michael Young), June 9, 1997 (8 hours).
4. Sexual Harassment Mediation Training - conducted by the CUNY Dispute Resolution Consortium, January 12, 2000 (4 hours).
5. Mediation Workshop, Harvard Law School Program Instruction for Lawyers, June 2001 (five days).

Additionally, I have served as a mediation trainer or facilitator for: New York State Attorney General's Office; New York City Law Department; NYU, Columbia and Fordham Law Schools; New York City Bar Association; New York Supreme Court, Commercial Division; Bankruptcy Court (SDNY)/NASD Mediation Training Program.

VI. Pertinent bankruptcy training:

No specific bankruptcy training other than a one-day PLI course.

VII. General pertinent business or legal experience:

I have served as counsel to a court-appointed Monitor of several small corporations and therefore have experience overseeing the day-to-day functioning of businesses, including the management of their debt. My experience as an Assistant United States Attorney in the Southern District's Civil Division also gave me some exposure to trusteeship. I have extensive general commercial experience.
