III. General professional experience:

I am a partner of the law firm of Brown Rudnick Berlack Israels LLP, which is based in Boston, Massachusetts and has offices in New York, New York; Hartford, Connecticut; Providence, Rhode Island; London, England; and Dublin, Ireland.

My law practice has primarily involved representation of financial creditors and shareholders in major restructurings and bankruptcies since 1982. The matters in which I have been involved over the last twenty years have included, among others, the reorganization or restructuring of Global Crossing Ltd.; Comdisco, Inc.; Integrated Resources, Inc.; Trump Taj Majal Funding Inc.; Zale Corporation; Tracor Holdings; Todd Shipyards; and Continental Airlines.

IV. General pertinent experience:

As counsel with a primary role in a number of difficult and complex Chapter 11 cases, I have been, on numerous occasions, called upon to mediate the resolution of seemingly intractable intercreditor and multiparty disputes.

V. Mediation training:

Participated in Institute for Conflict Management 17 hour skills course sponsored by United States Bankruptcy Court, S.D.N.Y., June 27-28, 1994.

VI. Pertinent bankruptcy training:

My law practice has involved representation of official creditors' and shareholders' committees and significant parties in major restructurings and bankruptcies since 1982.

VII. General pertinent business or legal experience:

Brown Rudnick Berlack Israels LLP is a full-service, international corporate law firm with offices in the United States and Europe. We have 200 attorneys who provide advice across four areas of the law: Business, Banking & Finance, Real Estate and Litigation. Our firm is a leader among law firms in the Northeast using alternative dispute resolution (ADR) methods. Our firm's ADR Practice Group started many years ago and offers a broad range of dispute resolution services including assistance in drafting contract clauses for dispute resolution, design of dispute resolution procedures, training in negotiation and settlement techniques, assistance in mediator selection, and development of dispute resolution strategies.

Our firm is committed to counseling clients on the use of alternatives to traditional litigation where appropriate. This commitment is backed up by in-house training seminars conducted by members of the firm's ADR Practice Group and ensures that all the firm's attorneys are prepared to counsel clients in the use of ADR. We are a member of the CPR Institute for Dispute Resolution, and our attorneys have been honored by this group for our successful and extensive work in the field.
