III. General professional experience:

I was a bankruptcy judge in the Southern District of New York from July 1991 through December 1999. Prior to taking the bench, I was an Assistant United States Attorney in the Civil Division of the United States Attorney's Office for the Southern District of New York (1986-1991) and a partner at the law firm then known as Anderson Russell Kill & Olick, P.C. (1980-1986). I am currently a partner in the Bankruptcy and Reorganization Group of Shearman & Sterling.

IV. General pertinent experience:

I have almost nine (9) years of experience in conducting settlement conferences in my judicial capacity. In addition, I have had formal mediation training, the techniques from which I often employed in my settlement conferences.

V. Mediation training:

I completed a one-day course in mediation training in 1995 given by the Institute for Conflict Management, Inc.

VI. Pertinent bankruptcy training:

As a bankruptcy judge in the Southern District of New York, I presided over complex reorganization and cross-border insolvency cases. Since leaving the bench, I have been involved in complex reorganization cases, workouts and cross-border matters.
