III. General professional experience:

I have been practicing bankruptcy law for approximately twenty-two years. I began my career at the Internal Revenue Service, Manhattan District Counsel's Office (1982-1985) which was followed by a clerkship for the Honorable Tina L. Brozman (S.D.N.Y.) from 1985-1987. I entered private practice in 1987 in the bankruptcy department of Dewey Ballantine (1987-1991) and then spent over thirteen years at Luskin, Stern & Eisler LLP (1991-2004).

IV. General pertinent experience:

During the twenty-two years I practiced bankruptcy law, I have represented parties in virtually all aspects of bankruptcy cases and out of court restructurings. I have represented secured creditors, unsecured creditors, bank groups, creditors' committees, trustees, lessors, purchasers of assets, defendants in adversary proceedings and purchasers and sellers of distressed debt in a wide variety of industries throughout the county. In addition to the above, I have served as a panelist for continuing legal education programs; I have co-authored Creditors'

Committee Manual (Warren Gorham & Lamont); and have served as a legal research and writing instructor at New York Law School. In addition, I have an LL.M degree from New York University Law School (Corporations Law).

V. Mediation training:

In 1986, I completed a three-day mediation training course sponsored by the Institute for Conflict Management in conjunction with the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York (24 hours).
