III. General professional experience:

I have been engaged in the practice of law for approximately 13 years. During that time, I have focused on the litigation of complex commercial disputes; bankruptcy, insolvency and creditors' rights; and the litigation of bankruptcy-related matters, including the prosecution and defense of preference and fraudulent transfer actions.

IV. General pertinent experience:

Throughout my career, I have participated in alternative dispute proceedings including mediation. During the past several years, I also have participated in mediations conducted in active bankruptcy-related proceedings in the Delaware District Court and the Delaware Bankruptcy Court. I have completed the Superior Court of Delaware's Mediation Training Certification Program and, accordingly, I am registered as an active mediator with the Delaware Superior Court.

V. Mediation training:

Superior Court of Delaware, Winter 2007 Mediation Training Certification Course.

VI. Pertinent bankruptcy training:

Since 2002, I have practiced in Richards, Layton & Finger's Restructuring and Bankruptcy Group. RL&F's debtor practice encompasses chapter 11 filings as well as out-of-court restructurings. In addition to its debtor practice, RL&F also represents all types of creditors in major chapter 11 cases, including secured creditors, DIP Lenders, trade creditors, landlords and others. Within our practice, we also prosecute and defend all types of chapter 11 claims, preference actions, fraudulent conveyance claims, challenges to acquisitions and all other litigation arising in the bankruptcy context.
