III. General professional experience:

I have been a lawyer at Debevoise & Plimpton since 1978 and a partner since 1986. While my career initially focused on the representation of debtors in bankruptcies and workouts (such as Chrysler, Western Union, and Baldwin United), for the last two decades I have primarily represented institutional lenders and other creditors in domestic and cross-border restructurings in and out of court.

My major cases in the United States include representation of creditors of Orion Pictures, TWA, Eastern Air Lines, Continental Airlines, Enron, USGen, Calpine, Kmart, Crown Pacific, Oregon Arena, Massey Ferguson and Reading & Bates.

I had also been involved in numerous cross-border cases such as Sea Containers, Parmalat Canada, LJ Hooker, AeroMexico, Mexicana, Kvaerner, and Burmeister and Wain.

I have often advised institutional lenders in connection with complex leveraged-lease and project finance transactions.

IV. General pertinent experience:

As counsel in numerous complex corporate restructurings in and out of court, I have had substantial experience in negotiating settlements of debtor/creditor and intercreditor disputes. Most recently I have represented parties in bankruptcy mediations in the USGen and Lynx Chapter 11 cases.

V. Mediation training:

40-hour Mediation Certification course, sponsored by the Institute for Conflict Management in October 2006.

VI. Pertinent bankruptcy training:

See III. above.

VII. General pertinent business or legal experience:

See III. above. After a 29-year career at Debevoise & Plimpton, my retirement as of December 31, 2007 will enable me to focus exclusively on mediation of bankruptcy disputes.

My academic experience is set forth below:

Harvard College – A.B. 1974 summa cum laude.

Harvard Law School J.D. – 1978 magna cum laude. Harvard Law Review. Sears Prize
