III. General professional experience:

I started acting as a neutral in 2008 part-time and since retirement from MetLife on October 15th, 2010, I have commenced a practice limited to acting as a neutral. I was a trial and appellate counsel for MetLife for just over 10 years, including conducting over 100 trials and arguing 10 appeals. For another 12 years, have focused on compliance issues, regulatory affairs and special projects for MetLife. This combined my general business and legal backgrounds to move business and compliance projects forward.

IV. General pertinent experience:

I've conducted 14 mediations and participated in 3 arbitration panels. Most involved individuals or small businesses coming to me privately as both sides trusted me. I am on the Mediator Rosters for the Commercial Division, New York Supreme Court, New York County and Queens County and have completed five mediation for them with two more scheduled. I am also on the roster for Resolute Systems (employment panel), NCDS and FINRA's arbitration panel. So far, I have conducted mediations to solve a variety of conflicts from Community and Social group conflicts through internal business conflicts (including business divorce), general commercial and real estate disputes.

VII. General pertinent business or legal experience:

I bring a combination business legal and psychological background to the table to assist with finding solutions to all types of conflicts. I have for the last 12 years, while leading various compliance activities have also lead general business projects. I know how businesses work (or not). I spent over 10 years as trial counsel taking part in over 100 trials and settling thousands of matters. My legal and business knowledge, coupled with my psychological background (M.S. Psychology, 2008) helps to resolve business issues.
