III. General professional experience:

I clerked in Southern District and was a litigator for a number of years. Thereafter, I held high-level appointed positions in both New York State and New York City government.

IV. General pertinent experience:

I have been a mediator for twelve years with JAMS and its predecessor, Endispute. I have mediated securities cases, broker-customer cases as well as employment, personal injury, and construction matters. I have successfully mediated two pro-bono matters in Bankruptcy Court.

V. Mediation training:

While I was with JAMS and Endispute, they held constant mediation training sessions each year. I also led a mediation session at the Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

VI. Pertinent bankruptcy training:

No specific bankruptcy training.

VII. General pertinent business or legal experience:

I also served as an arbitrator for the New York City Court system.
