

UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

Reopening of the Clerk's Office Public Intake Counter

Effective Tuesday, June 1, 2021, the public intake counters of all three divisions of the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York will be open to the public between the hours of 9:00 a.m. and 2:00 p.m. every weekday excluding federal holidays until further notice. All entrants must abide by the Court's COVID-19 entry protocol while in the courthouse which currently includes wearing a mask that covers your nose and mouth, getting your temperature taken by a contactless thermal scanner, answering a questionnaire about possible recent exposure to COVID-19, and following all instructional signage and markings relating to social distancing and elevator capacity. Up to date information on the Court's COVID-19 protocols can be found at <https://www.nysb.uscourts.gov/general-orders-and-guidance-created-covid-19>.
