In the Matter of

Pro Hac Vice Admission Fees

AMENDED
ORDER

JUC # 12

The Judicial Conference of the United States at its meeting of September 23, 1997 decided that local courts may charge, at their option, a local fee for pro hac vice admission separate from the fees currently authorized for the admission of attorneys to practice for all purposes, including bankruptcy, and the Judicial Conference provided further that revenues from local fees set for pro hac vice admission may be deposited into a district court's local non-appropriated funds account and the Board of Judges of the Southern District of New York at its meeting held on May 29, 1998 approved fee of $25.00 for each pro hac vice admission approved by the Court, and directed that these fees be deposited into the Miscellaneous Fund for the Benefit of the Bench and Bar, a local non-appropriated account, it is ordered that the Clerk's Office begin charging $25.00 for each pro hac vice admission and deposit the funds so collected in the Miscellaneous Fund for the Benefit of the Bench and Bar, effective June 1, 1998.
