VII. General Pertinent Business or Legal Experience:

Of counsel to Becker, Glynn, Muffly, Chassin & Hosinski LLP, a general practice international law firm in New York City. I specialize in debtor's and creditors' rights, reorganizations, bankruptcy, and commercial litigation and practice in the firm's corporate and litigation groups. I have represented debtors, secured and unsecured creditors, trustees in Chapter 7 and 11 cases, landlords, litigants, litigation financiers, and asset purchasers in cases throughout the country. Since 2008, I have represented creditors and litigants in Lehman Brothers cases and investors and defendants in Madoff cases and proceedings.

I received my A.B. from Columbia College in 1964 and my J.D. and LL.M. (Taxation) degrees from New York University in 1967 and 1970, respectively.

Between 2004 and 2010 I served on the Board of Directors of the American Bankruptcy Institute. Since 2009 I have been the American representative of hww Insolvency Cooperation Partners, an international organization of insolvency practitioners and attorneys and I have made oral and written presentations at the semi-annual conferences of its members. I have published articles on bankruptcy and insolvency topics and spoken publicly in the United States, Mexico, Canada and Europe. I am a member of the Association of the Bar of the City of New York, the New York State Bar Association, the International Bar Association (Insolvency Section – Membership Officer – North America) and the Inter-Pacific Bar Association (Vice Chair of Insolvency Section). I have regularly attended and submitted reports of UNCITRAL meetings of Working Group V (Insolvency) sessions, usually lasting one week and, taking place each spring at the United Nations in New York.
