III. General professional experience:

I have been practicing bankruptcy law for forty-three years. I began my career at the Legal Aid Society of Albany (1977-1979) following which I practiced at two law firms for approximately twenty-four years. In 2003, I formed Law Office of Gregory Messer PLLC, a firm in which I focus my practice on general bankruptcy work and on fiduciary roles.

IV. General pertinent experience:

I have represented parties in virtually all aspects of bankruptcy cases including individual and corporate debtors, unsecured creditors, lessors, purchasers of assets, and defendants in adversary proceedings in a wide variety of industries. I frequently serve as a panelist for national, state and local continuing legal education courses. Over the years, I have devoted numerous hours to pro bono representations and I have been recognized for that work by the Volunteer Lawyers Project.

V. Mediation training:

From December 7 – 11, 2014, I completed a comprehensive mediation course sponsored by the American Bankruptcy Institute/St John's University.

VI. Pertinent bankruptcy training:

In addition to all of the above, since 1980, I have served as a member of the panel of Chapter 7 trustees in the Southern District of New York (Manhattan) and the Eastern District of New York (Brooklyn). I have served as (a) Chapter 7 trustee, (b) Chapter 11 operating trustee, (c) post-confirmation trustee, and (d) examiner.

VII. General pertinent business or legal experience:

I have focused most of my forty three year legal career in the bankruptcy field as attorney and trustee. I have represented parties in all aspects of bankruptcy cases and adversary proceedings and have served as operating and liquidating trustee in a wide array of industries.
