III. General professional experience:

I have practiced law as an advocate, a general counsel and an arbitrator and mediator in a variety of commercial matters in U.S. federal and state courts, as well as tribunals in Europe, Asia, Africa and Scandinavia.

IV. General pertinent experience:

I am currently a mediator and an arbitrator with JAMS. I have mediated 30-40 commercial disputes beginning in 2003, with particular emphasis on disputes in the financial services industry.

V. Mediation training:

I have participated in a 2-day mediation training program sponsored by JAMS.

VI. Pertinent bankruptcy training:

As an advocate, I have participated in a number of bankruptcy proceedings, usually representing creditors. I have tried to verdict a lengthy adversary proceeding. I have also advised clients on fraudulent conveyances and preferential transfers.

VII. General pertinent business or legal experience:

As the Global General Counsel and a Director of a multinational bank (Credit Suisse First Boston), I have had extensive experience with investments, debtor-creditor relationships and resolving disputes arising out of those relationships.
