III. General professional experience:

In the last 25 years, I have been engaged in practicing or teaching bankruptcy law almost exclusively. I was appointed to the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Kansas in May 1986 and retired in 2000. Between August 2000 and May 2003, I taught bankruptcy and commercial law at Presidents College School of Law, Wichita, Kansas. In May of 2003, I returned to practice and limit my practice to matters relating to bankruptcy and Article 9 of the UCC.

IV. General pertinent experience:

As a judge, I did considerable informal mediation in settling pending cases. Since leaving the bench, I have observed or participated in a number of mediation cases not involving bankruptcy matters and taken core mediation training as well as auditing a class at Presidents College School of Law on ADR.

V. Mediation training:

Core mediation, Wichita Bar Association; audited ADR class at Presidents College School of Law.
