

Lois R. Lupica
Thompson & Knight, LLP
900 Third Avenue 20th Floor
New York, NY 10022
Tel: 207-671-6111
Email: lois.lupica@tklaw.com

File Dated: April 7, 2011

I. Profession	Accrediting Agency or Jurisdiction	Date of Admission
Attorney	New York State, First Department	Feb. 1, 1988

II. Professional Organization	Date of Admission	Active/Inactive
American Bar Association	1988	Active
American Bankruptcy Institute	2005	Active
International Women's Insolvency & Restructuring Confederation	2009	Active
American Association of Law Schools Debtor/Creditor's Rights Section	1994	Active

III. General professional experience:

I am currently Special Counsel with Thompson & Knight, LLP in N.Y. (since 2008) and the Maine Law Foundation Professor of Law at the University of Maine School of Law (since 1994). Prior to my academic appointment at Maine Law, I was Director of the Affordable Housing Initiative at Seton Hall Law School (1992-1994). Prior to joining the Seton Hall faculty, I practiced corporate and commercial law with Arnold & Porter, LLP (1998-2002) and White & Case (1987-1988).

IV. General pertinent experience:

I have taught alternative dispute resolution law school classes since 1994. I have trained mediators for the Maine Foreclosure Diversion Project, and will be participating in the program as a mediator in the coming months.

V. Mediation training:

Commercial Mediation Training, New York State Bar Assoc. 24 CLE Hours, March 15-17, 2011. I have conducted peer mediations at elementary school mediation program. I have also taught 3 credit law school classes in Mediation/Negotiation & Arbitration at the University of Maine School of Law for ~ ten semesters.

VI. Pertinent bankruptcy training:

I have practiced business bankruptcy with Thompson & Knight since 2008. I have taught business/consumer bankruptcy law at Maine Law since 1994. I am currently the Principal Investigator of the Consumer Bankruptcy Fee Study, sponsored by the American Bankruptcy Institute and the National Conference of Bankruptcy Judges. I have written extensively about bankruptcy law, commercial transactions and legal ethics and am a frequent speaker at bankruptcy law conferences.

VII. General pertinent business or legal experience:

Resident Scholar at the American Bankruptcy Institute in 2007

Reporter for the Maine Rules of Professional Conduct Ethics Task Force.

I am Legal Advisor to the Ethics Task Force of the American Bankruptcy Institute.