

Lara R. Sheikh, Esq.
Thomson Reuters
3 Times Square
New York, New York 10036
(646) 223-9835
lara.sheikh@tr.com

Date: August 16, 2018

I. Profession	Accrediting Agency or Jurisdiction	Date of Admission
Attorney	New York State App. Div., First Dept.	January 14, 2002
	District Court for Southern District of N.Y.	March 7, 2005
	District Court for Eastern District of N.Y.	March 7, 2005
	United States Supreme Court	November 13, 2012

II. Professional Organization	Date of Admission	Active/Inactive
American Bankruptcy Institute	July 19, 2004	Active
New York City Bar Association	May 14, 2003	Active

III. General professional experience:

I have focused exclusively in the area of bankruptcy law since graduating from law school in 2001. Early in my career, I served a two-year term (Sept. 2002-Sept. 2004) as law clerk to then Chief Bankruptcy Judge for the S.D.N.Y, the Hon. Stuart M. Bernstein.

I worked on many sophisticated bankruptcy matters at Pillsbury Winthrop, where I started my legal career as a Summer Associate in 2000 and rose to Senior Associate before leaving for Togut, Segal & Segal in 2007. At Pillsbury, I worked on 2 significant asbestos mass tort Chapter 11 cases and a cross-border restructuring of the Brazilian airline, Varig, S.A.

From March 2007 to March 2015, I was a bankruptcy attorney at the New York City bankruptcy boutique law firm, Togut, Segal & Segal LLP, where I worked on over 30 bankruptcy cases, including some of the largest and most complex bankruptcy cases ever filed, including: In re FL 6801 Spirits (a Lehman affiliate), Dewey & LeBoeuf LLP, American Airlines, General Motors Corporation, Chrysler LLC, Nortel Networks, Inc., Grubb & Ellis Company, Loehmann's Holdings, Inc., Delphi Corporation, Tower Automotive, Solutia, Inc., AbitibiBowater Group, Inc., and Fortunoff Fine Jewelry.

As of March 2015, I am a senior legal editor at Practical Law (Thomson Reuters) where I write and edit bankruptcy legal know-how resources for lawyers.

IV. General pertinent experience:

While in practice as a lawyer, I was involved in several mediations as counsel to a party in the mediation and was counsel to the mediator in a complex post-confirmation bankruptcy dispute in the Solutia case.

I am a member of the Minorities in the Profession Committee of the New York City Bar Association (2017-2019 term).

V. Mediation training:

In March 2015, I completed a 26.5 hour mediation training at the New York City Bar Association with Columbia Law School Professor Carol B. Liebman and Dina Jansenson of JAMS as lead trainers.

VI. Pertinent bankruptcy training:

I have taken hundreds of hours of continuing legal education on bankruptcy topics at the New York City Bar and the American Bankruptcy Institute.

I graduated from Brooklyn Law School magna cum laude in May 2001 with a concentration in debtor & creditor rights and Chapter 11 restructuring law.

VII. General pertinent business or legal experience:

I have a strong commitment to pro bono matters and am opening to mediating disputes on behalf of pro se litigants on a pro bono basis. I am proficient in Spanish.