

Richard J. Davis
415 Madison Avenue, 11th Floor
New York, NY 10017
Tel: (646) 553-1365
Email: richard.davis@rjdavislaw.com

File Dated: 3/8/2012

I. Profession	Accrediting Agency or Jurisdiction	Date of Admission
Attorney	New York	March, 1970

II. Professional Organization	Date of Admission	Active/Inactive
Association of the Bar of the City of New York	For 20 plus years	Active

III. General professional experience:

1981-2011 – Litigation Partner, Weil Gotshal & Manges, LLP, including involvement in complex negotiations, internal and government investigations, civil (including bankruptcy related) litigation, representation of Government of Argentina in 1980's debt restructuring. Also served as General Counsel to the Firm.

1977-1981 – Assistant Secretary of Treasury overseeing Secret Service, Customs Service, Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco & Firearms, Office of Foreign Assets Control, including participation in the development of the 1981 Iran-US Hostage Release Accords.

1976-1977 – Assistant, Watergate Special Prosecutor where served as Task Force Leader and Chief Trial Counsel in two cases.

1970-1973 – Assistant, U.S. Attorney, S.D.N.Y.

1969-1970 – Law Clerk, Judge Jack B. Weinstein, E.D.N.Y.

IV. General pertinent experience:

Since 2009, I have been a court-appointed Special Master to mediate three cases (two of the mediations-- a securities class action and a civil rights case – led to settlements and one is ongoing) and in 2011 successfully mediated a business dispute referred to me by a Judge in the Supreme Court Commercial Part.

V. Mediation training:

None

VI. Pertinent bankruptcy training:

As a partner in Weil, I participated in a troubleshooting capacity in the early stages of the Lehman bankruptcy and thereafter in representing witnesses in various litigation matters, played a leading role in litigation and plan negotiations in the Olympia & York bankruptcy and played a leading role in the Drexel Bankruptcy, including in the negotiation of the litigation settlement and the $1.3 Milken Global Settlement (in which I worked closely with Judge Pollack to conceptualize, negotiate and implement the agreement).

VII. General pertinent business or legal experience:

I have had numerous civic responsibilities which required leadership, objectivity and the ability to negotiate complex issues including, as examples, as Chair of the Mayor's Commission to Combat Police Corruption (1996-2002), Member of the New York City Campaign Finance Board (2009-date), Chair of Citizen's Union (2004-2008), Chair, Legal Aid Society (2010-date), Chair, City Bar Criminal Justice Council (2000-2003) and Chair, Randall's Island Sports Foundation (1998-2010).