III. General professional experience:

I am a certified specialist in business bankruptcy by the American Board of Certification. I have over 14 years experience focused on the practice of bankruptcy and restructuring, insolvency and related debtor-creditor litigation. I practiced with 2 regional law firms in Los Angeles, California from 1991 - 1997, Curtis, Mallet-Prevost, Colt & Mosle LLP in New York from 1997 through 2001, and Paul, Hastings, Janofsky & Walker LLP in New York from 2001 through March 2006. In March 2006 my wife and I formed our own boutique firm, STARR & STARR, PLLC with a practice focused on bankruptcy and restructuring for business and individuals (representing both debtors and creditors), commercial collections and debtor-creditor related litigation. Additional information regarding our firm, practice areas, and industries served is available at <http://www.starrandstarr.com>. As a mediator it is my goal to act as an unbiased neutral who facilitates parties reaching agreement.

IV. General pertinent experience:

I have prior experience as an attorney representing parties in mediation. I have participated in mediations involving preference litigation, claims litigation, and environmental contamination. I have also participated in arbitrations and settlement conferences. As a mediator it is my goal to act as an unbiased neutral who facilitates parties reaching agreement.

V. Mediation training:

In 2005 I completed the 24 hour Advanced Negotiation & Mediation Skills Program Sponsored by the Bankruptcy Court and presented by Abrams Mediation & Negotiation.

VI. Pertinent bankruptcy training:

My experience in bankruptcy has focused on representation of both business debtors and creditors in bankruptcy proceedings. I have represented a variety of creditors, including institutional creditors, indenture trustees, financial institutions, landlords and manufacturing companies. I also have extensive experience representing Chapter 7 trustees, as well as defendants in preference and avoidance actions. Additional information is available at www.starrandstarr.com.

VII. General pertinent business or legal experience:

My law practice experience has spanned a number of different industries and business activities, including real estate, banking and financial services, commercial leasing, shipping and transportation, aviation, construction, textiles and garment industry, toys, retail, wholesale, manufacturing, telecommunications, radio, cable TV, new technology, energy, bulk commodities, import/export, restaurants, and all types of service businesses.
