

Name: A. Scott Mandelup
Address: Pryor & Mandelup, L.L.P.
675 Old Country Road
Westbury, NY 11590

Date: July 20, 2020

Tel: (516) 997-0999
Email: asm@pryormandelup.com

I. Professional	Accrediting Agency or Jurisdiction	Date of Admission
Attorney	Admitted – State of New York	April 1978
	Admitted - United States District Court, S.D.N.Y.	November 6, 1978
	Admitted - United States District Court, E.D.N.Y.	December 5, 1978
	Admitted - United States District Court, N.D.N.Y.	December 5, 1994
	Admitted - United States Tax Court	January 27, 1981

II. Professional Organization	Active/Inactive
New York State Bar Association	Active
Nassau County Bar Association (Past Chair Professional Ethics Committee)	Active
American Bankruptcy Institute	Active
American Bar Association	Active

III. General professional experience:

I have been a practicing attorney since 1978. I have 42 years' experience as a commercial litigator in state and federal courts, and more than 33 years' experience in all aspects of bankruptcy practice, including representation of individual and business debtors and creditors in Chapter 11, 7, and 13 cases; representation of Chapter 7 trustees; bankruptcy litigation; and workouts. In more than 40 years of practice, I have dealt with a wide variety of bankruptcy and civil litigation issues, including fraudulent conveyances, preferences, fee disputes, cash collateral, homestead exemptions, avoidance of liens, perfection of liens, claims objections, confirmations of Chapter 11 plans, dismissal and conversion of Chapter 11 and 13 cases, equitable title and liens, sale of celebrity names by a trustee, objections to discharge, dischargeability of claims, reverse pierce-the-veil actions, matrimonial issues in bankruptcy, partnership disputes, landlord-tenant issues, commercial leases, restrictive covenants, fraud, breach of contract, trademark infringement, and objections to discharge and dischargeability of claims. I have more than 10 years' successful experience as a bankruptcy mediator on the panels for the Eastern and Southern Districts of New York, settling numerous adversary proceedings.

IV. General pertinent experience:

As a litigator and bankruptcy attorney, I have successfully negotiated and documented settlements of numerous litigations for clients, including complex multi-party matters, and have represented clients in mediations and arbitrations. As a mediator, I have successfully resolved numerous adversary proceedings, including multi-party disputes.

V. Mediation training:

Advanced Negotiation & Mediation Skills Training, sponsored by NASD Dispute Resolution and the Southern and Eastern Districts of New York, United States Bankruptcy Courts – 24 hours.

VI. Pertinent bankruptcy training:

For the past 33 years I have concentrated my practice in the areas of bankruptcy and creditor rights, and related litigation. I am a founding partner of Pryor & Mandelup, L.L.P., in Westbury, New York.

VII. General pertinent business or legal experience:

I have lectured on bankruptcy issues, including dischargeability of taxes, matrimonial issues in bankruptcy, attorney aiding and abetting liability for client bankruptcy fraud, and avoidance of fraudulent conveyances, for The St. John's University Metropolitan College Tax Institute and Internal Revenue Service program for accountants regarding financially troubled taxpayers, the Nassau Academy of Law, the New York Institute of Technology and Internal Revenue Service Accountants Continuing Education Program, the Bar Association of Nassau County–Employee Assistance Program, the Bankruptcy Committee and the Construction Law Committee of the Nassau County Bar Association, and the Academy of Matrimonial Attorneys. I have lectured on professional ethics for the Nassau County Bar Association, the St. John's University Law School Masters in Bankruptcy Program, and the Office of the United States Trustee. I have chaired the Nassau County Bar Association Professional Ethics Committee, a working committee which responds to inquiries from attorneys regarding the New York Lawyer's Code of Professional Responsibility, and issues written ethics opinions, which are published as a guide to the Bar.