III. General Professional Experience

ANTHONY MICHAEL SABINO, a practicing attorney and nationally recognized expert on a variety of legal subjects, is also a tenured full Professor of Law, St. John's University, Tobin College of Business, Graduate Division. Formerly judicial law clerk for a prominent federal bankruptcy judge, he has published well over two hundred articles for the nation's leading law reviews and journals, which in turn have been cited by some of the country's highest federal appellate courts, including the Fifth, Seventh, and now-Justice Ruth Bader Ginsburg while she was on the D.C. Circuit Court of Appeals, and many Ivy League and other national law reviews.

Prof. Sabino has also authored several amicus briefs for the United States Supreme Court, on a variety of topics, including, but not limited to, constitutional rights, federal civil procedure, and the federal securities laws.

Professor Sabino has been interviewed on television, including ABC, NBC, CBS, CNN, Fox News, and the BBC, and on radio by WCBS, WINS, WWOR, WABC, Bloomberg Business Radio, AP Radio, NPR, and others, as an expert on the Vioxx litigation, the Martha Stewart trial, the Enron, WorldCom, Delphi, and airline bankruptcies, and many other legal controversies.

He has been quoted by the New York Times, New York Post, Daily News, Associated Press, the Wall Street Journal, BusinessWeek, Dow Jones, Newsday, Los Angeles Daily News, the San Francisco Chronicle, the Houston Chronicle, the Washington Post, the Chicago Tribune, the Chicago Sun Times, the Miami Herald, and other newspapers and publications across the nation and the world.

Among other things, his expertise in actual legal practice and as a teacher includes complex business litigation, securities fraud, bankruptcy, creditors' rights, antitrust, accountants' liability, maritime law, aviation law, and arbitration and mediation. He practices law with Sabino & Sabino, P.C., Mineola, New York. Professor Sabino maintains a vigorous legal practice in each of these fields, representing a variety of corporate and individual clients in the federal and state courts, and in arbitrations and mediations at the stock exchanges and elsewhere. He is a fully trained arbitrator and mediator for the stock exchanges and other organizations.

Professor Sabino frequently organizes and lectures at continuing legal education seminars on the aforementioned subjects for the Nassau County Bar Association, and is very active with other professional organizations. He is the former chair of the Federal Courts and Arbitration Committees at the Nassau Bar, and also served as chair of the Bankruptcy Section of the Federal Bar Association.

Professor Sabino is admitted to practice before the United States Supreme Court, New York, Pennsylvania, and numerous federal appellate and district courts across the nation. Born in Brooklyn, New York, he is a graduate of St. John's University (B.S., Accounting, 1980), and St. John's University Law School (J.D. 1983).
