III. General professional experience:

Creditors' Rights and Bankruptcy practice. Practice focuses on representing secured creditors, corporate debtors, purchasers, trustees, vendors, consultants and other stakeholders in complex corporate bankruptcy cases and insolvency-related matters.

IV. General pertinent experience:

During my national bankruptcy and insolvency practice, I have performed investigations and conciliation work for the purposes of promoting voluntary settlement amongst my clients. Also, I have promoted voluntary discussions between parties to bring about settlement of differences by arranging joint or separate conferences, ascertaining facts of dispute, establishing points of mutual agreement, effectuating agreement on issue or issues remaining in dispute, making suggestions and proposed to parties concerned possible solutions for settlement.

V. Mediation training:

Mediation Program, American Bankruptcy Institute, December 8-12, 2019

VI. Pertinent bankruptcy training:

Over the past thirty years, I have represented virtually all types of stakeholders in bankruptcy cases, insolvency proceedings and other insolvency matters arising all across the Unit States. My experience spans both extremely large cases and small cases, and spans virtually all industries.

VII. General pertinent business or legal experience:

As a commercial bankruptcy attorney specializing in Chapter 11 matters, I have been involved in litigation and bankruptcy matters all over the country. I have represented lenders, borrowers, debtors-in-possession, liquidators, buyers, creditors, consultants, lessors, contractors, trustees and receivers in every aspect of business bankruptcy and insolvency law, including the negotiation, structuring and documentation of complex commercial loans and related transactions as well as in out-of-court workouts and related restructurings. I have also litigated and provided clients with advice in connection with the structuring of complex lending and other commercial transactions.
